Day 2 – 19th May 2016 (Thursday)

- Breakfast
- Sightseeing and free time in the town of Kotor. Guided Old town tour.
- Old Mediterranean port, surrounded with town walls, it is very well preserved & it is under the protection of UNESCO. Old town is surrounded with magnificent fortification, which are continued on the hill St. Ivan (St. John). Length of the fortification is 4,5 km, which is curiosity of world scale. Width of the wall variates, it comes up to 15 m, and height up to 20m.
- Continued on next slide

Kotor

- You can enter the Old Town through three gates, main gate is on the west, and it is called "Door from the sea" (from 1555.). Pinched in foothill of mountain Lovcen, surrounded on north with short river Skurda, and from south with underground wellspring Gurdic, Kotor is by all means baroque town. After the big earthquake in 1677, all palaces were restored in baroque style. It is obvious that here, except construction, maritime and shipbuilding, trade and art also flourished.

Between 1420. - 1797. Kotor was under Venetians, that period left the biggest mark on towns architecture. Kotor's bay (part of Boka bay) is one of the deepest and longest bays on Adriatic sea, so it is often called most southern fjord in Europe.

Day 3 – 20th May 2016 (Friday)

- Breakfast
- Sightseeing and free time in the towns of Bar and Ulcinj. Guided Old town tours.
- Most significant tourist locality in Bar Riviera is Old Town Bar, the only town of all maritime old towns that is not located at the very shore. This fortified hill was first populated by Illyrians. This settlement was abandoned in the time of Romans, because they moved closer to the sea. Old town Bar was center of the country Doclea, and from 1089. here is located archbishopric. Old Town Bar is fortification, and it is 3 km away from the sea.
- Continued on next slide

Old town Bar

- Inside the fortification there are churches from XIV and XV century - St. Katherine and St. Veneranda, and remainings of church St. Nicola, which was built in 1288. by Jelena, wife of Serbian king Uros I.
- Near by the town the oldest olive tree in the world is located, as old as Christianity, over 2009 years. Tree is fenced, because a lot of the visitors want to break off a twig as a souvenir. Main symbol of Bar is olive.
- Drive from Bar towards Ulcinj.
- Sightseeing and free time in the town of Ulcinj

- Ulcinj has become a unique „open town“ in which various cultures can be identified. In the Old Town one can still recognize the strong presence of the Orient and the West, the Mediterranean and Europe. Since its foundation it has been a significant sea and trade harbor, and in the time between the end of the 16th and beginning of the 19th century it used to be an important pirate stronghold. Nature has really been generous to this town. The Old Town in Ulcinj is one of the oldest urban architectural complexes along the Adriatic Sea. In this enchanting dish resembling a stranded ship for 25 centuries life has been booming, civilizations have been exchanging leaving their vivid traces up to now. It is a unique opinion that the Old Town represents a cultural-historical monument of invaluable significance due to its Illyrian walls, its citadel, the street net, the markets and squares, some house blocks and some valuable architectural edifices, and especially due to its town landscape, silhouette and urban plaster.
