National Council Meeting
IPA Section UK
Lincoln
England

10th to 12th June 2022

Dear International Members/ Friends

The recent pandemic prevented Section UK from celebrating the founding of the International Police Association 70th anniversary in the way we had planned. Section UK will be holding their National Council Meeting 2022 in Lincoln, Lincolnshire, England, between the 10th to the 12th June, at the Double Tree by Hilton Hotel, Lincoln LN1 1YW. We wanted to hold this event in the county in which our Founder Arthur Troop was born and served.

We would be delighted to welcome international members to join our celebrations. While the meeting is in progress International members may wish to take advantage of our guest programme being co-ordinated by our local Lincolnshire Branch. You may also wish and stay at the hotel and meet Section UK members from all the Regions of the UK and enjoy the many delights of historic Lincoln?

On the Friday we are arranging a visit to the International Bomber Command, a world-class facility acknowledging the efforts of Bomber Command during WWII. If you do not wish to attend, the afternoon is free for you to shop in the city centre. Lincoln is a compact city which is easily accessed from the hotel. There will be an informal dinner in the evening complete with entertainment giving a great opportunity to make new friends from all across the UK.

On the Saturday, whilst our formal meeting is taking place, we have organised escorted visits to both Lincoln Cathedral and Lincoln Castle. After the visits there will be free time which will allow you to browse the shops and explore historic Lincoln. A buffet lunch will be taken as a group at one of the historic hotels in the city. There will be no cost to guests for the buffet lunch.

In the evening there will be a gala dinner with VIP guests, speeches and presentations. Dress code will be black tie. Again entertainment is provided together with formal photograph opportunities.

The cost for a guest will be £280 and only £150 for a person sharing. Extra nights can be booked at £119 for two people including breakfast. An application form is attached.

Please complete the NCM booking for the visits you wish to do. This will enable us to arrange suitable transport and inform the venues of the numbers attending.

We look forward to meeting you in Lincoln to celebrate the 70th anniversary of our wonderful association.

Yours in friendship
